

STRIATO MOSAICS

installation features

Striato Mosaics includes an interlocking modular system that provides a seamless installation for any size application. Each panel includes borders that enable the creation of smooth continuous transitions.

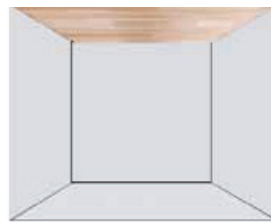

single wall

adjacent walls

profile view

ceiling

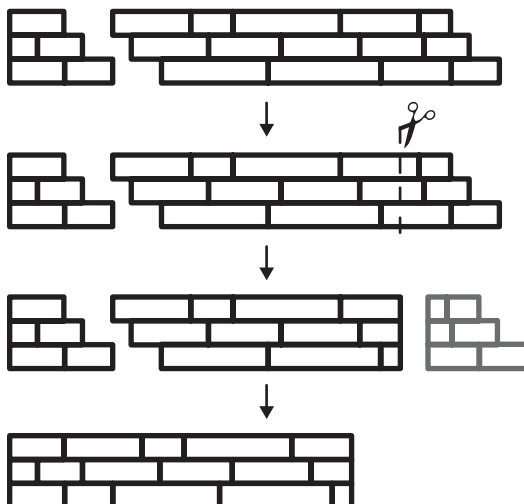

wall & ceilings

mount horizontally or vertically

Striato Mosaics interlocking system is designed to be trimmed with or without the use of the end border based on your needs. This options provides an additional layer of customization when sizing and installing the material.

Trim without Border End

Trim with Border End

